

Borjghali

ბორჯღალი

Bristol Georgian Choir

Presents an evening of song & tastes of Georgia

Saturday 15th November 2014 - 7.30pm

Dir: A Johnston

Borjghali (pronounced 'borch-ka-lee') is a choir that performs folk songs and sacred chants from the Republic of Georgia. The evening will start with a performance, and will be followed by Georgian snacks, traditional Georgian toasts, interspersed with slides of the country, and anecdotes from the choir's experiences from its time in Georgia as well as some rousing singing!

Mackenzie Hall, Brockweir, Nr Chepstow, NP16 7NW (40 mins Bristol)

Entrance - £10 - in advance only

Doors open at 7pm

Please bring your own drinks

Tickets: Jude Blodwen 07989361389

or jude.blodwen@blueyonder.co.uk

www.borjghali.co.uk

Endorsed by the Ministry of Song